

GETS PRISONERS TO TRY SLAVE TRADER
TO MEET MITCHELL

Negro Head of Syndicate to Abduct White Women
Decides to Fight.

Spriggs, if Convicted, Will Be Arraigned Successively on Two Other Charges.

DEFENCE REJECTS ELEVEN

Questions Talesmen as to Daughters and Sisters, as Well as Race
Prejudice.

Six jurors were selected yesterday to try Robert H. Spriggs, a negro, who was the head of the white slave traffic in this city, and who has decided to defend himself against the charge of having abducted Mattie Warren, whom he kept a prisoner in one of his dens in Cornelia street.

He decided to stand trial rather than plead guilty, as a first offender, to abduction, to assault in the second degree, and to maintaining a disorderly house, for which he is also indicted. His attorney was offered to him by District Attorney Jerome, and had he accepted it his maximum penalty would have been imprisonment for sixteen years and a fine of $500. Declining it, he will not be sent to prison at once if he is convicted of the present charge, but will be placed on trial for the others without delay. As he is a second offender, his sentence, if convicted of all three, will be doubled.

Reputable looking in the extreme was Spriggs, as he sat before Judge Cowling, in Central Criminal Court. He is of chocolate color and his hair is cut very short, disclosing an old scar on the left side of his head. A short black mustache covers a large mouth, and his protruding under lip gives him a brutal look. He evinced no nervousness, but sat nearly all the time with his arms folded. Only occasionally did he speak to his lawyers, John R. Heinzelman and Mark Alter.

To Make Bitter Fight.

They had decided on a bitter fight and it was due to their tactics that the jury was not filled before the trial was adjourned for the day. But these were seated in the box when the day was closed.

KEITH, GEORGE D., clerk, No. 841 East 139th street.
MULLEN, FRANK, express, No. 203 West 141st street.
BELL, SIDNEY D., men's furnishings, No. 108 Central Park West.
KATZ, ERNEST, window shades, No. 100 East 127th street.
GLAFFE, JAMES B., artist, No. 147 West 125th street.
MOLLAKI, EDWARD H., broker, No. 905 East 163d street.

Assistant District Attorney Garvan, who, with Assistant District Attorney Murphy, is conducting the prosecution, put only a few questions to each talesman, but the lawyers for the defence went into the feelings of the talesmen at length. They asked each if he was married, and, if so, if he had any grown daughters. If he was a bachelor they inquired if he had sisters. They wanted to know if he had any prejudices against negroes, and if the fact that Spriggs was charged with abducting white women and detaining them as prisoners would in any way affect his judgment. They then asked him to give his opinion as to the guilt of the man charged with the abduction of Mattie Warren.

Retort from the Bench.

"But you wouldn't put a man's liberty in jeopardy on what Mr. Brown, on an opinion based on what you read in the newspapers?"

"I wouldn't," answered Mr. Brown.

Justice Cowling asked a few questions of the talesman and said he was qualified to be a juror.

When Mr. Garff was called to the chair Mr. Garvan again said he had no question to ask him. He then asked the talesman to be sworn, and Mr. Garff became the fifth juror, although not a question as to his oath. He then asked the talesman to be sworn, and Mr. Garff became the fifth juror, although not a question as to his oath.

Under Police Inspector McLaughlin's system of having detective sergeants on patrol duty in residential districts in the city, a search for burglars, Detective Sergeant Barry yesterday arrested John Meagin, nineteen years old, of No. 331 West Fifth street, and William Davis, who said he was fourteen and lived in No. 10 Erie street, Jersey City.

Meagin, the boy, is eighty-sixth street, near Columbus avenue, and recognized Meagin. Davis fled, but Barry captured Meagin, who had a pair of opera glasses, four gold watches, a lot of silverware and two suits of clothes. J. Kayser, of No. 72 West 41st street, identified the property as some which had been taken from his home in the afternoon.

Davis was arrested in the evening by Barry at the Majestic Theatre.

ALIMONY ASKED FOR SON.

Rosenquest Said to Owe $2,590 to Estate of Dead Wife.

In behalf of his son, a motion was made in the Supreme Court yesterday directing Wesley Rosenquest, manager of the Fourteenth Street Theatre, to pay alleged arrears of alimony, amounting to $2,590, to his wife from February 25, 1904, until her death on August 1, 1905. Judge Cullen postponed argument on the motion, but the case was set for a separate trial in March, 1906, but the case was not tried.

WOMAN ACCUSES AGED MAN.

Says He Annoyed Her on Broadway Car—Has Him Arrested.

Eugene Powelson, sixty-five years old, who gave his address as No. 343 West thirty-fifth street, and said he was assistant manager of a registry company in No. 150 Nassau street, was locked up in the West Thirtieth street police station last night charged with disorderly conduct. The complaint was made by Mrs. Catherine Campbell, No. 120 East Fifty-fourth street, who says he annoyed her on a Broadway car.

ICE TRUST FAVORS
SOME CUSTOMERS

Well Known Broker, Objecting to Ten
Per Cent Increase, Is Told Old
Rate Is Acceptable.

HIS THREAT IS EFFECTIVE

W. B. Oliver, Jr., Gets Offers from Independent Companies to Give Original Rate or Lower.

That the American Ice Company is disposed to allow certain of its customers to purchase ice at rates they have been paying for a year in spite of the fact that this product is increased in value ten cents a hundred weight, is shown by the declaration of W. B. Oliver, Jr., of No. 16 East Seventh street, a member of the New York Stock Exchange, that after refusing to meet the advance demanded by the corporation he was told that the original rate would be resumed.

This information was imparted to W.
M. Oler, president of the American Ice Company, yesterday afternoon. He stated that he knew nothing of the incident and that there had been no decrease in the price of ice supplied by his corporation.

About a week ago residents of the section bordering the east side of Central Park were served with a notice that the price of ice would be advanced ten cents a hundredweight. Agents of the company explained that the scarcity of the article necessitated the advance. Stewards of families which use a great deal of ice were told that the coming season would see a general advance, due to the open winter
in the districts of the ice harvests.

Mr. Oliver, informed of the communication by his steward, told her that notice
must be sent to the office of the company requesting a discontinuance of the service unless the old rate was resumed. The outcome of this stand had the effect of bringing an agent of the corporation to Mr. Oliver's home, with the result that the old
rate was resumed.

In the meantime agents for several independent companies had approached the broker. They declared that they were ready to sell ice at the rate which the American Ice Company originally maintained, and that should the trust lower the price of the product they were willing to meet the terms. At his home last evening
Mr. Oliver declared:

"When my steward informed me that she had received a communication from the American Ice Company that an advance would be made in the price of ice, I put my mind to work. I am an outcast. This is an opening, evidently, for a general increase in the price of ice. Personally, I would not submit to the treatment. I so informed my steward. Then an agent of the company appeared. He said that if I was dissatisfied with the advance I could obtain ice at the old figures. This statement did not appease my wrath.

All of a sudden I learned that the ice crop of Maine had failed, and that the supply from the Hudson had disappointed the cutters. To my mind, this was a great deal more than
